Application FAQ

Q	I just matriculated and haven't yet compiled an academic record at the graduate school I now attend. Is an undergraduate transcript acceptable?	Q	Do recommendation letters need to be handwritten as well?
A	Yes, you may submit a transcript of the undergraduate institution from which you graduated.	A	Typewritten recommendation letters are acceptable. Use the Excel form downloadable from our website and be sure to have the recommender place his/her signature in the 氏名(ご署名)section. (A signature that is typed, stamped or handwritten by any other person will cause you to be disqualified.)
Q	Does the transcript have to be an original? Do you accept copies?	A	The recommendation letter format is different for the engineering field only. If you are applying in the field of engineering, please make sure to use the recommendation letter format for engineering, and have your recommender check the box for 'related to medicine or pharmacology' after confirming.
A	You may submit a copy.
Q	Are transcripts written in the language of my home country accepted?	Q	Do you accept application forms completed in English?
A	Yes. If it is difficult to obtain a transcript written in Japanese or English, you may submit a transcript written in the language of your home country. Please note that, as specified in the program guide, the transcript must provide course titles, credits earned, grades or other evaluations of student performance, and explanations of what the evaluations mean. Transcripts with only pass/fail information will not be accepted. At least one year's worth of academic transcripts are required. If your most recent transcript only covers half a year, submit the one from the previous year as well.	A	Application forms completed in English will be accepted but must be accompanied by a Japanese translation of all English entries, including proper nouns. In such cases, the forms completed in English must be handwritten by the applicant. If you are able to fill out sections of the form in Japanese, we encourage you to do so. The Japanese translation need not be handwritten. No specific format or structure is required for the Japanese translation, but make sure to separate the translation corresponding to each page of the application form, and print it on single-sided paper (no both-side printing). Only for the section on "Research Subjects" (page 7 and 8 of the application form), you can write it continuously and there is no need to separate the pages. Please note that your application will be disqualified if there are any unnatural and unintelligible expressions, mistranslations, large omissions, translated content that is not contained in the original text, or other inaccuracies in the Japanese translation. Also, in the Japanese translation, character limits for the sections on "Future Aspirations (Future Aspirations and Progress of the past one year)" (将来の抱負{将来の抱負とこの1年の進捗}), "Research Subjects (Research Subject, Progress of the past one year and Research Plan for fiscal 2025)" (研究内容{研究について、この1年の進捗と今年度の計画}) and "Progress and Achievements over the past one year" (過去1年の成果及び活動) still apply, and you are required to clearly indicate the character counts.
Q	Is the mail deadline the postmarked date or the date by which my application has to arrive at the Foundation?
A	For both new and renewing applicants, your mailed application must arrive at our office by 3:00 p.m. on the deadline date for mail submission. Only applications sent by mail are accepted. Please note that the deadline for online submission of application documents through the Application Support System on our website is 5:00 p.m. on the deadline date for online submission. Be sure to send a hard copy of your application documents by mail after submitting them on online.
Q	Does my application need to be handwritten?
A	The application must be handwritten by the applicant. Your application will be disqualified if all or any part of the application is typed, handwritten by someone other than yourself, written with an erasable ballpoint pen, or written with tablet devices then printed out.

Q	The sections for “Future Aspirations (Future Aspirations and Progress of the past one year)” (将来の抱負{将来の抱負とこの1年の進捗}), “Research Subjects (Research Subject, Progress of the past one year and Research Plan for fiscal 2025)” (研究内容{研究について、この1年の進捗と今年度の計画}) and “Progress and Achievements over the past one year” (過去1年の成果及び活動) have grid lines for Japanese characters. How should I proceed if I’m completing these sections in English?
A	Simply ignore the grid lines. No limitation is placed on the number of alphanumeric characters when you complete them in English. In the Japanese translations, however, please make sure to stay within the predetermined limit on the number of characters and clearly indicate the character counts.
Q	I currently have no specific research subject. What should I write in the section for “Research Subjects” (研究内容)?
A	Write about a research theme that you wish to pursue and how you would pursue such research (within 800 characters).
Q	I’m receiving practical training at a hospital and have no research subject. What should I write in the section for “Research Subjects” (研究内容)?
A	Write about what you are learning through the practical training and what you would like to accomplish medically in the future (within 800 characters).
Q	What should I do if I have no particular “Progress and Achievements over the past one year” (過去1年の成果及び活動) to report?
A	Please report any achievements or advancements over the past one year, including not only presentations at academic conferences and papers submitted for publication, but also other achievements in your studies, activities contributing to the community, and so forth. If you had few achievements and advancements last year, you should not apply.
Q	What should I write about papers in the section “Academic conference presentations, papers accepted for publication, etc.” (学会発表、論文掲載の研究実績) on page 10 of the application form for medical fields?

A	Please write the "author's name," "article title," "journal name," "volume number," "start and end pages," "year of issue (Gregorian calendar)," "peer-reviewed or not," "IF," and "DOI (Digital Object Identifier)." Also, write the principal three authors' names for a paper coauthored by several people. Other authors' names can be omitted. When they are omitted, please write the total number of authors and indicate where the applicant is among them using an ordinal number.
Q	Under “Have you applied for other scholarships/research grants?” (他奨学金・研究助成金の併願状況), how should I enter one-off payments?
A	When entering your information online, select “Annual amount” and enter the total yearly amount. On the Scholarship Application Form, in a blank space enter words such as “once-off” to explain the type of payment. # Application FAQ

Q Where are the required 5 spaces to write the reference number?

A Please refer to the STEP04 of the "Application Process" section in the Scholarship Guide or the Application Support System. In addition to these five spaces, you must also write the reference number on the envelope containing your letter of recommendation, the envelope in which you send your Scholarship Application Form, and all other envelopes used in the application.

Scholarship Amounts

Q How are scholarship amounts determined?

A Scholarships of 2 million, 1.5 million or 1 million yen are granted based on documents submitted and candidate interviews, as evaluated by our selection committee. Those who already receive scholarships from other sources will receive 500,000 yen.

Q Will it affect the selection process if I win another research grant, or earn income from a part-time job?

A The selection process is not affected by income earned as a TA, RA, in part-time work, or received as a research grant. However, if your Application Form fails to show how you are meeting your tuition and living expenses, such as where details of your income and expenses are not provided or your stated income does not match your expenses, or lacks reasonable explanation for such failure, your application will be disqualified. Therefore, please accurately describe your current situation. You are ineligible to apply if you plan to do a long-term paid internship during the scholarship period.

Q How do you distinguish between a scholarship and a research grant?

A All funds to support living expenses and those with no specified purpose of use (such as purchasing materials directly required for research) are considered "scholarships," even if they are called "research incentive grants," "research focus support funds" or the like.

Q Can I receive the Foundation's scholarship if I receive another scholarship? If I can, does the amount of the other scholarship affect the amount by which the Foundation's scholarship is reduced?

A You can receive the Foundation's scholarship provided the sum total received from other scholarships during the scholarship period is less than 1.8 million yen. The Foundation's scholarship will be reduced to 500,000 yen, regardless of the amount of the other scholarship.

A You cannot receive the Foundation's scholarship at the same time as receiving benefits under the Japan Science and Technology Agency's Support for Pioneering Research Initiated by the Next Generation, the MEXT's University Fellowship Founding Project for Innovation Creation in Science and Technology, or other similar programs/projects.

Q Are exemptions from admissions fees and tuition considered "other scholarships"?

A No, they are not.

Q Is income from a part-time job or a teaching or research assistantship considered "other scholarships"?

A No, it is not.

Q Are "scholarships provided as loans" considered "other scholarships"?

A No, they are not. Only scholarships from the government, foundations, or other institutions that do not have to be repaid are considered "other scholarships."

Japanese Proficiency

Q Am I eligible regardless of my Japanese proficiency?

A Yes. However, your Japanese proficiency (assessed in light of the length of your stay to date in Japan) may affect your evaluation as a candidate. A lack of enthusiasm for Japanese, such as failure to speak any Japanese at all during the interview, will be detrimental to your evaluation.

Q	Is it possible to be interviewed in English?
A	While interviews are normally conducted in Japanese, they may be conducted in English if you arrived in Japan recently. Please note that you will be interviewed in Japanese if your application has been prepared in Japanese. Accordingly, be sure to prepare your application in English if you cannot speak Japanese. Even if you are interviewed in English, efforts to speak in Japanese, such as giving a simple self-introduction, will be evaluated positively.

Establishment

The Otsuka Toshimi Scholarship Foundation was established on March 6, 2007. The Foundation was formally registered as a “public interest incorporated foundation” on April 1, 2012.

Background to the Foundation’s Establishment

Japan’s aging population and low birthrates have become prominent trends in recent years that are expected to accelerate. The country faces a strong need to develop as many talented young people as possible. Meanwhile, developing countries in Asia, the Middle East, Africa, and other parts of the world—which have strong economic, educational, and cultural ties with our country—have growing numbers of young people but limited opportunities for them to study and pursue research at universities and other institutes of higher education in Japan and other developed countries. Additionally, young people from such countries often struggle financially while studying abroad due to inadequate resources.

Given these conditions and the need for ongoing, mutually beneficial development, it was recognized that the provision of financial assistance to Asian, Middle Eastern, African, and other international students specializing in medicine, pharmacology, nutrition, physical education, and business administration at Japanese universities and graduate schools would be highly meaningful and worthwhile. Accordingly, the Otsuka Toshimi Scholarship Foundation was established in 2007.

Profile of Toshimi Otsuka, the Founding Donor

The Foundation began with a private donation from Toshimi Otsuka, a member of the family that founded the Otsuka Group. Toshimi Otsuka was born on December 24, 1922, in Naruto, Tokushima Prefecture. Raised by hard-working parents, she enjoyed a happy childhood.

In 1950, Toshimi Otsuka joined Otsuka Pharmaceutical Factory, a firm established by Busaburo Otsuka, her father. There she assumed various responsibilities ranging from clerical work to employee dormitory management. She lived simply and frugally, practicing economy wherever possible. In her later years, she expressed a wish to help society in some way and offered to donate her lifetime savings for the purpose.

The Otsuka Toshimi Scholarship Foundation was established in 2007 to provide financial assistance to students from countries that have long supported the growth of the Otsuka Group and thereby contribute to the development of future leaders in those countries.

While serving as a director of the Foundation, Toshimi Otsuka attended the award ceremonies for scholarship recipients each year, drawing on her own life experiences over the years to talk about the joys of learning and the importance of overcoming obstacles. A gracious and modest woman of personal integrity, she died on May 3, 2011, having led an unblemished life for 88 years.

The memory of Toshimi Otsuka lives on in the Foundation's activities.
